The Daily Courant.

Friday, Auguſt 17. 1705.

From the Bruſſels Gazette dated Aug. 7.

Venice, July 18.

SIgnior Franciſco Grimani ſet out from hence ſome Days ago on his Embaſſy to Englaud. We have receiv'd Letters from Conſtantinople by the way of Dalmatia, dated the ſecond of this Month, which ſay a Squadron of Ships of War was gone from thence, and with them ſome Galleys and Galliots; which being ſeparated, part is gone towards the Danube, and the other towards the Boryſthenes; and that there are no other Preparations of War made in Turky either for Land or Sea. They write from Leghorn, that by a Ship arriv'd in 10 Days from Meſſina, they had advice that 6 Corſairs of Barbary were Cruiſing in the Sea of Calabria, and had taken a Tartan bound for Naples; And that the 27th of laſt Month the Pope's Galleys join'd thoſe of Malta off Cape Spartivento, where they ſtaid for 4 Malteſe Ships of War who had been ſeen in the Seas of Corſica.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 14.

Venice, Aug. 1. The Electoreſs of Bavaria has receiv'd Advice from Munich, that the Young Prince and Princeſs her Son and Daughter, who had been dangerouſly ill, are perfectly recover'd. 'Tis talk'd her Electoral Highneſs will ſhortly ſet out from hence for Bruſſels. The Imperialiſts in Lombardy are poſſeſs'd of Romanengo, Caſaletto, and other Poſts as far as Belvedino behind the Naviglio: There have been ſome Skirmiſhes between them and the Army of the 2 Crowns of France and Spain, and we are in Expectation to hear of a general Action: Prince Eugene's Army being newly reinforc'd by a great Number of Recruits, conſiſts at preſent of 40000 Men.

From the Bruſſels Gazette dated Aug. 7.

Milan, July 16. On Tueſday laſt the Prince of Vaudemont, Governour General of the State of Milan, went to Lodi to meet and confer with the Duke of Vendome. The 11th of this Month arriv'd at Genoa 30 French Veſſels laden with Corn and Ammunition, under Convop of Four Men of War. The Duke of Savoy has caus'd the Riſing Grounds and Poſts of Gaſto, Setto, San Rafaele, and Brandis, to be fortified, to diſpute all the Ground he can, thereby to give Prince Eugene time to ſuccour him; and has alſo caus'd Entrenchments to be made about Turin, to retire into them with his Army if the Succours he expects do not come.

From the Amſterdam Gazette dated Aug. 14.

From the Camp of the French at Statmat near Haguenau, Auguſt 1. The Count de Coignies is arriv'd here with his Detachment, very ſeaſonably to oppoſe the Deſigns of the Enemy, which was to lay a Bridge from the Iſland d'Dalonde to this ſide of the Rhine, in order to ſieze the Sluyces which we had made between Benheim and Boſweiler; by means of which Sluyces we could cover Fort-Louis from the Enemies Enterprizes. Redoubts are made along the Banks of the Rhine, facing the Iſland of Dalonde, which is the only Place where a Bridge can be laid. The Imperialiſts had got together a good number of Boats for the Enterpriſe we have mention'd, but they found we had taken meaſures to fruſtrate them. Had they ſucceeded in it, they might have kept Fort-Louis block'd up till it ſhould have fallen of courſe into their Hands; for with 5 or 6000 Men they might eaſily have kept our Sluyces, and with them ſo overflow'd the Country, that an Army of 100000 Men could not have come at them.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 11

Ratisbon, Aug. 3. Nothing conſiderable has paſs'd of late in the Diet; the principal Affair that has been under Debate for ſome days paſt, is, how to make good to the City of Ausburg the Damage they ſuffer'd from the Elector of Bavaria; which Affair meets with great Oppoſition, ſeveral Towns pretending to the like Reimburſement of the Loſſes they endur'd at the ſame time.

From the Bruſſels Gazette, dated Auguſt 4.

Liſſa, July 18. The 13th of this Month the Swediſh General Lagercroon took a Review of a Troop of 200 Carabineers, King Staniſlaus's Guards; with which he march'd the 14th to Reiſſen, where he gave up the Command of them to Collonel Poniakouiski, in Preſence of the ſaid King Staniſlaus. Collonel Poniakouiski drew up the ſaid Company before the Caſtle of Reiſſen, and made them exerciſe and diſcarge their Fire-Arms thrice; which done he caus'd them to encamp in a Meadow. Count Pipir, the Generals Welling and Lagercroon, and ſeveral other Swediſh and Poliſh Officers of Note who were preſent at the Exerciſe of the foreſaid Troop of Carabineers, were treated by King Staniſlaus magnificently in a Tent, and in the Evening retun'd to their Quarters. The 15th the King of Sweden arriv'd here from Rawitz, and from hence proceeded to Meſeritz, Schwerin, and Birnbaum, to take a Review of the Regiment of Dragoons of Craſſau which is quartered in those Places. Yesterday King Staniſlaus march'd with his Court for Warſaw, attended by a ſtrong Guard of Swedes, to aſſiſt at the great Diet which was open'd there the 11th Inſtant and (we hear) was adjourn'd by their Marſhal to the 18th, becauſe there were but few Deputies come to it.

thoſe

From the Leiden Gazette, pated Auguſt 13.

Maeſtricht, Aug. 10. The Cannon with 3 Mouths (or Barrels,) taken from the Enemy when the Lines of Brabant were forc'd, have been prov'd here; and were found to be good and ſerviceable; they fire 3 ſhots one after another. Yeſterday our Governour General Dopf, went hence to the Army; and was follow'd to day by all the General Officers and Colonels that were here. Likewiſe great Convoys of Ammunition and Proviſions, are continually ſending from hence and Liege. We expect to hear of ſome great Action in a very few Days.
